TASTING NOTES

The 2003 Rockburn Pinot Noir is deep garnet in colour and has a lovely nose dominated by spices and violets. The palate is full of rich, yet subtle black berry fruits with layers of complexity enhanced by fine tannins. The wine displays an elegance and power which lingers long after the last mouthfull.

REVIEWS AND AWARDS (updated regularly)

Gold Medal 2004 Air New Zealand Awards.

Four Stars Winestate – A sound, tasty and well-balanced Pinot Noir from Lowburn in Central Otago. A wine doing very well while youthful yet showing the depth of fruit of a fine wine emerging.

Jancis Robinson 18/20 – Vibrant, deep, intense nose. Extremely full and fruity start with some fine, grainy tannin on the finish and very good acidity. Round and slightly herbal.

93/100 Gold Medal – June 2005 Home & Entertaining Magazine – It's a mix of black cherry, plum, and dried spice flavours with a silken texture and lingering finish. A minor fruit bomb with appealing sappy complexity. Bob Campbell.

90/100 July 2005 Wine Spectator – Tangy and rich with lovely ripe strawberry and blackberry flavours supported by zingy acidity all of it lasting nicely on a generous finish. H.S.
